

Please do not change the rules to allow cell phone use in airplane seats. To be in a confined space with someone jabbering away next to you is very upsetting. If you must change the rules to allow usage, have the airlines set aside a place that is not in the seating area.

Thank you.